

Route Outline

This ride will take you out from Sandwich, through the quite country lanes and cycle paths over to Dover, past the Castle and onto enjoy the views across the English Channel and France on a clear day, from the White Cliffs.

A nice place to stop off for a break and really enjoys the views, is the National Trust café on top of the cliffs themselves.

The route will then take you back through St. Margaret's, Deal and the golf courses to Sandwich.

The route does have mixed use paths, so please be careful and share them with other users.

Route Details

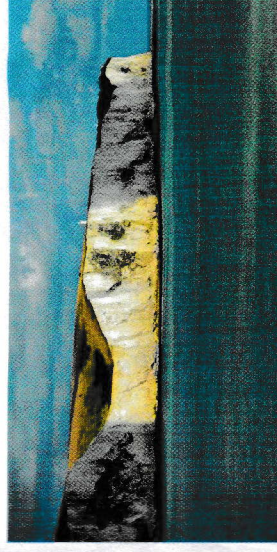

Heading out from Sandwich through Woodnesborough and onto Eastry. After going through Eastry, join the cycle on your right, before reaching the roundabout. The route will continue through the village of Tilmanstone and onto another cycle path, then onto the quiet roads towards Guston on the outskirts of Dover. The route then winds up to the top of White Cliffs where the views of the channel open up, before heading into St. Margaret's, along the seafront at Deal and returning to Sandwich via the golf courses between the two towns.
